LA LAMBRA: Following the route eastwards, after Pedro Barba we find the beach of La Lambra. DANGEROUS BEACH- WAVES AND CURRENTS

EL SALADO: The Salado is the closest beach to Caleta de Sebo. El Risco de Famara continues this by offering a spectacular view.

LA FRANCESA: If we continue travelling around the edge of the Graciosa island, after the Yellow Mountain (Montaña Amarilla) we come across the extensive Playa de la Francesa.

LAS CONCHAS: This is probably the most spectacular beach of them all. Situated on the north of the island and flanked by the imposing Montaña Bermeja, it is an idyllic place.

LA COCINA: To the west of the island is the Montaña Amarilla (Yellow Mountain) which gets its name from the yellowish shades of the calcreous material that it is made from.

LA LAJA: Once inside the town of Caleta de Sebo, we find the little beach of La Laja.
